This is a With-You Wrap that was made just for you. I hope that when you wear it, you feel my arms around your shoulders and hear my words as whispers in your ears: You are strong. You are beautiful. You are valued. You are needed. Your life matters. I care about and believe in you.

You may not be able to see by just looking at it, but within this wrap are elements of the number 3. Why? Because 3 is a powerful number, and I wanted to send some of that power to you. Symbolically, 3 represents something that is solid, real, substantial, complete. To the Mayan people, 3 was the sacred number of women, and to the Japanese it represents the “3 treasures” of truth, courage and compassion.

Using purple is also symbolic. Purple represents power, truth, justice, wisdom, independence and peace. And these are all things that I wish for you.

I am proud to stand with you. I hope you feel me there with you every time you wear this wrap.

The With-You Wrap is an all-volunteer project created and run by the Connecticut chapter of the National Organization for Women, www.now-ct.org.
